Other News

Winslow Public Library has acquired two works of art by Maine artist Bernard Langlais which are on display in the lobby, a gift of the Kohler Foundation and Colby College. We are participating in the new Langlais Art Trail, a widely publicized list of sites in Maine that now exhibit Langlais's work.

We have also placed a new bench, created from an original Fort Halifax timber, in the library's entryway. This item was crafted and donated by Winslow resident Stan Mathieu.

The Summer Reading Program is in full swing, with 163 children and 30 adults registered. We have activities for all age groups scheduled each week. Please see our web site for details.
